About Netball

Seven players per team on court, a 10-foot hoop, three seconds to pass, no dribbling, no contact, no backboard, and no running with the ball. Netball is an exciting, inclusive sport that can be played by all genders of all ages. Not many people know Netball was invented in America in 1895 as the original women’s basketball, from there it spread throughout the Commonwealth countries. Netball fans celebrated when in 1995 Netball became a recognized Olympic sport and a strong push for 2032 Olympic inclusion.
