

Sonya Ottaway, former Sydney accountant turned global KPMG executive, co-founded Netball America, introducing Australia's national sport to thousands in the US. She also sits on the board of Advance – Australia's Global Community, fostering connections between Australians abroad while carrying homegrown values of resilience, fairness, and community.

Sonya Ottaway has spent decades championing Australian values on the world stage through both business and sport. She

25 of Australia's top trailblazers around the world

dailytelegraph.com.au